

With expertise in major transport infrastructure projects, Transia provides comprehensive advisory and training services in construction traffic management across all stages (Planning, Design and Delivery).

Examples of the types of professional services Transia offers is outlined below.

For further information about Transia's experience and services, please view our Capability Statement.

Helping you set your projects up for success...

PROJECT INCEPTION & PLANNING

- Provide technical traffic engineering & product advice
- Develop safe, efficient & cost effective construction & traffic management staging
- Advise on innovation opportunities

TENDER

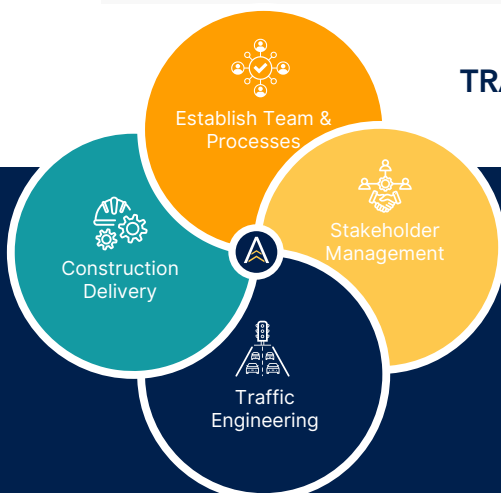

- Prepare Traffic Management Strategies & Plans
- Develop construction & traffic management staging proposals
- Develop traffic team structure & resourcing requirements
- Provide expert technical traffic engineering advice
- Develop traffic management forecasts
- Present construction & traffic management proposals to the client

PROJECT DELIVERY

- Prepare Traffic Management Strategies & Plans
- Establish the traffic team, resourcing, procurement & processes
- Engage with construction team to inform traffic staging solutions
- Develop & manage key stakeholder liaison & engagement
- Develop & implement risk management processes to maintain safety & compliance
- Manage daily traffic issues & interfaces
- Perform operational & functional design reviews

TRAINING

- Bespoke training to Contractors to provide insight into what is required from a traffic management perspective for successful delivery of major transport infrastructure projects

Strategic leadership & advisory services to help private sector clients manage the road network during construction.

